Article IV: Committees

Section 1. Committees

The Board of Directors, by resolution, may designate one or more committees, each of which shall consist of two or more directors. Such committees shall have and exercise the authority of the Board in the management of the corporation, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Board.

Article V: Fiscal Year

The corporation's fiscal year shall begin on the first day of January and end on the last day of December in each year.

Article VI: Indemnification

The corporation shall indemnify its directors, officers, employees, and agents to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Article VII: Amendments

These bylaws may be altered, amended, or repealed, and new bylaws may be adopted, by a two-thirds majority of the directors present at any regular meeting or at any special meeting, provided that at least twenty-one days written notice is given of the intention to alter, amend, or repeal or to adopt new bylaws at such meeting.

Article VIII: Conflict of Interest

Section 1. Purpose

The purpose of the conflict of interest policy is to protect this tax-exempt organization's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the organization or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction.

Section 2. Definitions

a. Interested Person: Any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

b. Financial Interest: A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family - an ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the organization has a transaction or arrangement.

Section 3. Procedures

a. Duty to Disclose: In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

b. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists: After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon.

Section 4. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy

a. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

b. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
